

from the time of sale, or may recover the value thereof and damages.

84. In all cases of sales of real estate by a collector, if the owner shall not redeem the same within the time and upon the terms aforesaid, the purchaser may recover possession, if the same be withheld, by an action of ejectment, in which action, as well as in the actions prescribed by the last preceding section, the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover, upon producing the receipt of the collector for the purchase money, describing with reasonable certainty the property sold, and showing on the part of the collector a substantial compliance with the requirements of section 80th of this article.

85. If the collector shall be resisted, attacked or menaced with violence, he may summon to his aid the posse comitatus, and each person so summoned and serving shall be allowed fifty cents a day, to be paid by the county; and if any person being summoned shall refuse to serve, he shall be liable to a fine of five dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, one-half to the use of the party prosecuting, and the other half to the county.

86. If any person shall strike or assault a collector in the discharge of his duty, or any person serving as one of the posse comitatus as aforesaid, or shall strike or assault any person, to deter or prevent his bidding or for having bidden at a collector's sale, he shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, and imprisonment for not less than two nor more than twelve months.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

87. There shall be five county commissioners for Dorchester county.

88. Each commissioner shall be entitled to one dollar and twenty-five cents for each day he shall attend upon the duties of his office, and also an allowance of three cents a mile for every mile that his place of residence may be distant from the place of meeting, and such mileage shall be allowed for coming to and returning from their place of meeting, each day he shall attend.
